

After landing, both crews were hoisted and carried up the hill by the Salopians, who possibly in one instance may have regretted their self-imposed task before the hill top was reached. After lunch a race between a crew of 'Old Salopians' and Shrewsbury School 2nd VIII took place. Morrison rowed 7 for the former crew, but honours went to the latter. The crew were entertained to tea by the Headmaster, who had in the morning kindly shown us over the chapel and explained the fine stained glass windows. He also entertained us at tea with anecdotes of the vagaries (one of the anecdotes certainly meriting this term), of former Headmasters, and expected in return an anecdote of Bedford. Unfortunately none of us were able to respond. Have we no history of our own School, or was it because none of us had read it, if there is? We thank most heartily all our kind hosts—the crew being distributed among the various houses—for the hospitable way in which we were entertained, everything possible being done for us.

We carry away most pleasant memories of our visit to this most delightful of school sites. By the way, some of us were struck both literally and figuratively by the jolly arrangement known as 'swills.' After a hearty send-off we left at 5.30, arriving home at 10.30 after a somewhat tedious journey, many times on the way wishing for the wings of the proverbial dove.

SHOOTING.

On Saturday, June 16th, the School Corps shot a match against their oldest enemies, the Bedford detachment of the 3rd V.B. Beds. Regt. For the latter Sergt. Tildesley made a fine score, 33—30—33—96. The conditions of the match were, ten men a-side, the best 8 to count.

SWIMMING.

The School met Dulwich on June 20th for the first time and lost by two events to one. Our Swimmers were rather handicapped by the novel conditions of an in-door bath, and lost easily by about 20 yds. Wemyss swam well and Masters made a good effort to make up lost ground. The latter also put up a good race in the 120 yds., losing to J. T. Latter, a very fast man. In the Polo match the School won the toss and defended the shallow end. After a good opening by Goddard, Wemyss got through and Chambers shortly afterwards added another goal. The second half proved very exciting, as Dulwich, after a good shot by Riencke, nearly equalised on the stroke of time. We congratulate Wemyss on receiving his colours after the match.

The distance for the inter Boarding House Team races of six a side has been fixed at 60 yards with one turn. They will start next week and will be swum off on July 4th and 7th, Wednesday and Saturday mornings. The competition will be for a cup kindly presented by Mr. N. Tyrer (O.B.); two points for a win and one for a tie.
