

Pro-Monitors :—R. Powell, F. Radice, H. O. Sutherland, G. H. Chambers, C. Gilbert, H. M. Fordham.
Sub-Monitors :—V. L. Laville, A. V. Moberly, H. Salmond, K. Hannay, L. D. Smith, E. H. Pointer.
Options :—J. T. Gilbert, L. Pointer, A. D. Sherwood-Smith, W. H. Goldney-Baker, F. S. L. Spalding, H. J. B. Foster, J. D. S. Scott, F. R. L. Lowth, H. Hanmer, A. Stein, A. W. Woolley, V. O. Raynor, C. A. Raynor.

SHOOTING.

The VIII, who have six old colours, started their season on Wednesday, May 22nd, with a simultaneous match against Marlborough and Haileybury.

THE SCHOOL.

	200	500	Total.
Sergt. Radice .....	30	31	61
Sergt. Gordon .....	31	30	61
Sergt. Ritchie .....	31	30	61
2nd Corpl. Pickett.....	28	32	60
2nd Corpl. Martyn ...	29	27	56
Sapper Gordon .....	28	27	55
Sapper Shippey .....	26	26	52
2nd Corpl. Snook.....	27	25	52
	230	228	458
Marlborough .....	241	229	470
Haileybury .....	244	231	475

We are pleased to see Sergt.-Major Sims once more on the range, assisting Major Columbine in instructing would-be marksmen.

The School 2nd XI v. Mr. C. King's XI. (May 15th).

MR. W. E. KING'S XI.		THE SCHOOL 2ND XI.
G T Fields-Clarke, b Grierson	17	Mearns, c Day, b Quince	13
O J Day, lbw, b Grierson	7	Lightfoot, b King	12
B Keenes, c Anderson, b Baker	48	Forbes, b Quince	7
C Quince, b Grierson	9	Phillips, c Gill, b King	1
Turnbull, c Hunter, b Grierson	0	Hill, hit wks, b King	0
Sharp, b Baker	2	Watson, not out	17
Ayres, c Forbes, b Anderson	4	Hunter, b King	2
Gill, C Phillips, b Mearns	1	Briggs, c Fields-Clark, b King	2
Whaley, c Mearns, b Baker	3	Baker, run out	2
Powell, not out	3	Anderson, b King	2
King, b Baker	0	Grierson, b Quince	4
Extras	9	Extras	5
Total..	89	Total..	66

BOWLING ANALYSIS.

	O.	M.	R.	W.	A.
Grierson .....	12	2	24	2	6
Hill .....	5	—	15	—	—
Anderson .....	19	4	18	1	1 1/2
Baker .....	9 1/4	3	18	4	4 1/2
Mearns .....	5	1	18	1	13

Hill and Mearns each bowled one wide.

O.Bs' Dinner at Hong-Kong

On April 13th an O.Bs' Dinner was held in Hong-Kong, at the Peak Club, with very great success. Those present were—
 Capt. J. H. M. Beasley, R.G.A. (1888—94).
 Lieut. C. B. Down, R.G.A. (1896—1900).
 H. H. Gompertz (1878—1886).
 W. J. Gresson (left 1886).
 A. C. Hynes (1882—1892).
 Lieut. F. V. B. Kirwan, A.S.C. (1887—96).
 Capt. W. Miller, Middlesex Regt. (left 1891).
 G. C. Moxon, (1886—9).
 Capt. B. S. Phillpotts, R.E. (1883—93).
 G. B. J. Stuart, R.N. (1904—5).
 Capt. B. A. Thompson, 3rd Middlesex Regt (1886—93).
 Major W. A. F. Williamson, A.S.C. (1884—7).

Also, as guests, Lieut.-Col. J. F. Carter and W. C. D. Turner, O.B.M.

The gathering would have been larger, but for the fact that the Fleet had left a few days before. Among those who were prevented from attending were Capt. A. J. Thompson, R.G.A., Capt. F. Lane-Poole, R.M.A., Lieut. Lloyd, R.N., Midshipman Welman, R.N., and Lieut. Lethbridge, I.A.

The toast of 'Mr. J. S. Phillpotts' was proposed by Mr. Moxon, and that of 'The Rev. S. B. Phillpotts' by Mr. Gresson; Capt. B. S. Phillpotts returned thanks for both, and proposed the health of Mr. King. Col. Carter responded for 'The Guests.'

A correspondent sends some interesting details about some of the O.Bs present. Mr. Gompertz is Senior Magistrate and Acting Attorney-General: Mr. Gresson, head of the firm of Jardine, Matheson & Co., is an Hon. Member of Council and the leader of the commercial world of Hong-Kong. Mr. Moxon is one of the leading merchants, and manager of a bank. Both the latter are also well-known as sportsmen. Mr. Hynes is in the Hong-Kong and Shanghai Bank.

The last O.Bs' Dinner at Hong-Kong was when the expedition to Peking was passing through. On that occasion 45 attended.

The Subscription to the 'Ousel' for this term is 1/6. Subscriptions to be paid in advance (except by Boarders) to W. E. SMITH, Esq., Bedford Grammar School.