

THE # OUSEL.

THE JOURNAL OF BEDFORD GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Issued to Subscribers and for private circulation only.

VOL. XVII. No. 441.

JULY 2, 1913.

NEW SERIES.

The School Chapel.

The sermon in Chapel on Sunday, June 15th, was preached by the Rev. S. B. Phillpotts, Senior Fellow of King's College, Cambridge; on Sunday, June 22nd, by the Rev. J. H. Perkins, O.B., Sacrist and Minor Canon of Westminster Abbey; and on Sunday, June 29th, by the Rev. O. Craig, O.B., Vicar of St. Anne's, Wandsworth.

School Note.

N. L. Carrington has been elected to a Scholarship of £80 a year in Modern History, at Christ Church, Oxford.

Concerning O.Bs.

In the list of Cambridge Honours, published in our last number, should have appeared the name of E. O'N. Hogben, Selwyn College, 2nd Class in the Mathematical Tripos, Part I.

We notice in a copy of the R.M.C. orders that the Sandhurst Rifle Team has four O.Bs.—D. S. Frazer, H. Dawes, F. Powell, and A. C. Curtis—amongst its eight members.

It is also a record for an O.B. to hold the dual offices of Captain of the Shooting VIII. and Revolver Team. We congratulate D. S. Frazer on this distinction.

H. F. T. Hogben, of the London Hospital, scored a highest possible at 1,000 yards, when shooting for the University of London against Oxford University, at Bisley.

The Library.

The Librarian acknowledges with thanks the following:—

From the Rev. T. W. Pym, O.B., Chaplain of Trinity College, Cambridge, "London's Underworld" (T. Holmes), "The Growing Generation" (Barclay Baron), "Across the Bridges" (A. Paterson). Boys wishing to borrow any of these three books should apply to the Librarian; the donor particularly wishes that boys of the School shall read them.

From Miss Agnes Weston (the authoress): "My Life among the Bluejackets"; sent by Mrs. Dymock, from her stall at the School Bazaar, "Thomas Pownall" (C. A. W. Pownall), and Nansen's "Farthest North"; from J. H. Whitehouse, Esq., M.P., "With the Bulgarian Staff" (Noel Buxton).

Also, from an unknown donor, a large framed engraving of Raffaele's "Sposalizio"; and from Mrs. Frazer a framed photograph of the recent presentation of Colours to the R.M.C., Sandhurst, by H.M. the King, in which D. S. Frazer, O.B., Captain of Sandhurst Rifle—and Revolver—Shooting, carried the Regimental Colour.

Also, many School Magazines, both English and Colonial.

The Librarian wishes to take this opportunity of thanking Mrs. Hunter (mother of A. G. Hunter, O.B.), for her kind present of books, which was acknowledged in a last term's Ousel as coming from an anonymous benefactor. The source is no longer "wropt in mistry."