

J. N. White and R. Kellett beat Messrs. E. Robinson and E. A. Rolfe (6-3, 5-7, 7-5), and Messrs. H. Boys-Stones and A. R. Alston (6-3, 6-4). C. N. Reed and W. T. R. Wingfield beat Messrs. Robinson and Rolfe (6-2, 6-3); and Messrs. Boys-Stones and Alston (2-6, 7-5, 6-2). H. K. G. Nash and I. R. McIntosh beat the Rev. H. C. Perry and Mr. H. A. Henderson (4-6, 6-3, 6-3), and lost to Messrs. Boys-Stones and Alston (4-6, 7-9). The play of most of the School team was of a promising standard, stylish and forcible, and far more accurate than usual.

O.Bs. v. MASTERS.

Each side was represented by two teams of 6. Messrs. Robinson and Rolfe beat Page and Dalgety (O.Bs), (6-3, 6-3); beat C. G. Simpson and T. Bovell Jones (6-3, 6-4); lost to Lieut. Col. G. H. Wells and P. H. Boas (2-6, 1-6). Other details are not to hand. There were many delays, and some matches were unfinished, some left unplayed.

O.Bs v. THE SCHOOL.

The cricketers being unable to play, the School team was quite unrepresentative. Of 5 matches played, the O.Bs won 4, the School 1; 3 were left unplayed, and one was left at set all. It is a great pity that so much time is lost in these O.B. matches owing to vagueness of arrangements.

Smith and Green (O.Bs) beat Worth and Roberts (9-7, 7-9, 6-2), and Turnbull and Moll (6-3, 6-1); Boas and East (O.Bs) beat Moll and Turnbull (6-8, 6-4, 6-2), and lost to White and Wingfield (6-8, 6-4, 3-6); Bovell Jones and Simpson (O.Bs) beat White and Wingfield (6-4, 4-6, 9-7), and were 4-6, 7-5 against Moll and Turnbull. The closeness of some of the matches is well reflected in the scores.

In the open tournaments J. D. P. Wheatley, O.B., has been prominent, as usual, and R. Powell, O.B., again won the Bedfordshire Open Singles, besides distinctions on the south coast and elsewhere.

Finally,—O! for a hard court or two! O fortunatos nimium Haileyburienses!
